

Due to the devastating effects the National Grid lawsuit would have on permit holders around the lake, the SPC's attorneys have filed the necessary documents requesting that the SPC be interveners in the lawsuit to protect the rights of the permit holders. If this request is granted by the judge, the permit holders will be represented and take part in the trial proceedings.